Report of the Activity

Name of the Event	HINDI DIWAS
Date	14/09/22
Day	Wednesday
Members in Jury	Dr Anita S Karpur
Total No. of Participants	39
Target Class / Course	Hindi Students of all course
Highlights of the Event	Hindi is spoken in most areas of India. Hindi is the official language of India, as well as the language of communication. On 14 September 1940, the Constituent Assembly accepted Hindi written in Devanagari script as the official language of the nation along with English. Later in the year 1953, 14th September was chosen as the historical day and Hindi Diwas was celebrated on this day. The purpose of celebrating Hindi Diwas is to promote Hindi. Hindi Diwas was celebrated on 14/09/22 by the Department of Languages in association with Literary Forum. On this day Professor Anita S Karpur of Noble College, JP Nagar, Bangalore, a emerging poet, and writer, was invited as a guest. While addressing the students and the faculty present, Professor Anita Kapoor highlighted the importance of Hindi Diwas & Hindi and also the students' attitude regarding the

	language. She also presented a poem of her own. Students enthusiastically participated in Hindi Diwas. On this day, competition of making charts was held on the Topic of Hindi literature as well as Hindi Diwas. Many students also entertained the audience by reciting Shayri. Two students also sang songs in their melodious voices. On this day college Advisor Dr. Shanti Iyer, HOD of the Language Department Dr. Janardana JB, other Professors of the Language Department Dr. Geeta, Dr. Prasanna, Assistant Professor Arovalli, Assistant Professor Indrakala, Dr. Hemavati, Assistant Professor Sanjukta were present. Hindi Divas was organized in BS Raman Seminar Hall. The purpose of celebrating Hindi Diwas was to inculcate pride & self-esteem among students about their official language, Hindi. A sense of awareness and respect for Hindi to be created among the students. The students got the knowledge of the importance of Hindi in the India as well as in the world. Along with the language, the feeling of pride towards the country was awakened because only through language the progress of the country is possible and through which the culture and civilization expand.
Suggestions for Improvement (if any)	The department and Literary Forum can plan to send the event's winners to intercollegiate competitions organised by various governmental and nongovernmental organisations.

Name of the Event	Folk Dance Competition
Date	09/06/23
Day	Friday
Members in Jury	4
Total No. of Participants	32
Target Class / Course	B.com, BBA, BA, BCA (II,IV,VI Sem)
Highlights of the Event	India's rich, cultural heritage is folklore. Folk music, drama and dance are studied under folk literature. In this, folk dance has its own unique identity. This folk dance keeps our social tradition and beliefs, customs alive from generation to generation through dance. Folk dance is an expression of mass culture. It is absolutely necessary for the students to know this. Keeping this theme in mind, a folk-dance competition was organized by Bhasha Sangam on 9th June, 2023, in which students of each course participated enthusiastically. Two solo dance & five group dance is presented by students. Total 32 students participated in Folk Dance Competition.

	In this, all the students decorated themselves with folk dance costumes. Janapada dance of Karnataka, Kollattam of Tamil Nadu, Lavani dance of Maharashtra, Garba and Dandiya of Gujarat, Ghoomar of Rajasthan, Chhau dance of West Bengal were the attraction dances of this competition. The Principal of the college, Prof. Raghavendra R, all the Heads of the Departments, all the professors and most of the students, as spectators, continued to encourage the participants. Students became aware of the values and concepts of folk dance. Through this competition, students acquired the knowledge of folk dance. The purpose of this competition is the development of folk culture.
Suggestions for Improvement (if any)	The department and Literary Forum can plan to send the event winners to participate in inter collegiate competitions organised by various governmental and nongovernmental organisations.

Highlights of the Event	To commemorate the arrival of a fresh harvest "Makar Sankranti" festival is celebrated in every region of the country in a vibrantly different way. Kala Koushaly – Cultural committee of Dr. N. S. A. M. First Grade College celebrated "Makar Sankranti" festival in the college premises by decorating the reception lobby with decorative kites, various grains and pulses, yellu bella (sesame and jaggery), sakkarae acchu (sugar dolls), kabbu (sugar cane) and clay pots. The main attraction of the celebration was when students welcomed the cows decorated with flowers and bells. Students and staff members offered bananas, a special meal and worshipped. Worshipping cow signifies prosperity. Students and staff members enjoyed the celebration. Outcome: The celebration helped students to understand the importance of the harvest festival and helped to inculcate moral values like politeness, sharing, respect towards elders, and respect for nature.

Suggestions for Improvement

Students requested for cultural programme and to organize kite flying competition .

Highlights of the Event	The Youth Red Cross Unit of Dr.N.S.A.M FGC in association with NCC, NSS, and Lions Club of Vijaynagar organized "BLOOD DONATION CAMP" on the special occasion of "National YOUTH DAY". A total of 135 units of blood were collected by the camp, a noteworthy gift that may save many lives. The camp's primary goal was to raise awareness of the value of blood donation by gathering blood for the needy. It was admirable how eagerly student volunteers and blood donors participated. Blood drives are essential to guaranteeing a continuous supply of blood for emergencies. The occasion serves the immediate beneficiaries of given blood as well as increasing public awareness of the value of routine blood donation in the neighborhood.
